Kathy Carmona is the dedicated speech therapist at OLG. She has been teaching for over fifty years and has been with our school since 2000. Prior to working for OLG, Mrs. Carmona worked in the Fremont School District and at San Jose State for nearly forty years.

She graduated from USC with a Doctor of Education and has taken additional course at Cal State Hayward, San Jose State, and the University of San Francisco for her credentials. Mrs. Carmona has credentials in the following areas: Elementary, Junior High, Speech Therapy, Learning Disabled, and Administration.

In addition to speech therapy at OLG where she works with 18 students and 2 students for individual reading development, she tests all Kindergarten students for speech and administers standardized testing, by request, using the Woodcock-Johnson Battery Test.

Mrs. Carmona is the youngest of four children and her husband, Art, passed away in April, 2010. She has no children of her own but plenty of children in her life with a total of 14 nephews and 1 niece. She loves reading, watching movies, attending plays and operas, dancing, playing piano, learning new computer skills, and travelling. In fact, Mrs. Carmona has already visited multiple states and countries including: New Jersey, New York, Colorado, New Mexico, Missouri, Hawaii, Alaska, Canada, Mexico, Germany, Italy, Austria, France, Spain, Portugal, and East Africa.
