

Our Lady of Guadalupe School Christian Value Scholarship

Our Lady of Guadalupe School is dedicated to empowering students to achieve academic, social and spiritual success. The scholarship was created to support the academic endeavors of a former OLG student who has shown a commitment to the Catholic faith and to being a life long learner. This scholarship is modeled on Our Lady of Guadalupe School's dedication to recognizing and awarding students who are socially aware, effective communicators as well as integrated persons who excel academically. The Christian Value $1,000 Scholarship is a non-renewable one-time award that will be granted to the recipient before he/she attends their first academic term at the institution of higher learning.

To be considered for the scholarship, the recipient must:
