Dear OLG Families,

It was delightful to return to school on Monday to the bright, eager faces of the children! That morning I had awoken feeling like I could use another week of the Easter holidays. Yet, the moment I greeted the students at Morning Assembly, I knew I was so glad to be back! Thank you for sharing your wonderful children with us!

Monday was Ms. Vicky Trucios (Ms. Vicky to the children) first day as our secretary. She and Mrs. Murray will be working closely together initially to get Ms. Trucios acclimated to OLG. Welcome, Ms. Trucios! Meanwhile, Mrs. Murray is already working within her new role as Director of Mission Advancement. She will be focusing on marketing, our alumni and out-reach efforts to the greater business community and foundations. Blessings upon you, Mrs. Murray, as you blaze this new endeavor for us!

It does take great commitment and sacrifice to make the choice to send your child to a Catholic School. I am very cognizant and grateful for your commitment to OLG! I also know that many of our families don't even think about Catholic High School for your children. Especially parents of 4th through 7th graders, please mark your calendars for Tuesday, April 24 at 7:00PM. We will have a special guest from Moreau Catholic High School sharing what is possible for families who want Catholic education for their children, yet can't see beyond the financial costs. This will be a very important opportunity for you to see what's out there, what's possible for your child's future.

Please read page two very carefully regarding our upcoming Emergency Drill.

May our Risen Savior open our eyes to the daily presence of God's Spirit within and among us!

In God's Peace,
S. Janice Therese, O.P.

Alleluia!
